May 7 Showcase – Jillian Matundan

by Jillian

Jillian Matundan became a musician at a young age when she began training as a classical violinist at the age of three. She has also been trained on piano, flute, and sitar, and is self-taught on numerous other instruments. She'll play guitar for her showcase.

Jillian has performed all over, from the Eastern Shore of Maryland to Cebu in the Philippines, and was a founding member of the locally beloved and internationally ignored band Dancing for Nickels in her home town of Syracuse, NY.

She plays violin and string bass in the Reston Community Orchestra (<https://restoncommunityorchestra.org/>) and the McLean Symphony (<https://mclean-symphony.org/>), and recently joined the PanTones Steel Band (<http://www.pantonesband.com>) in DC. She is also a member of Team in Training (<https://www.teamintraining.org/>), and has headlined a number of benefit concerts for her cycling team in Albany, NY, with local musicians and bands.

After a long hiatus of writing music and performing, Jillian started writing again last summer, and began doing open mics in the area in January. It was a Dar Williams songwriting retreat last August that provided the songwriting spark. She is working on an album and hopes it will be released by the fall.

Jillian works in the labor movement and volunteers with Homeward Trails Animal Rescue in her spare time.

...one of the top acoustic blues groups in the Mid Atlantic region
-Smithfield Music

The Folk Club of Reston-Herndon is a non-profit organization

The MSG Acoustic Trio performs traditional Piedmont blues in the style of Archie Edwards, Etta Baker, and Cephas & Wiggins. This band can raise the roof with some old-fashioned house party tunes, make you laugh with their witty originals, and then make you weep with blues ballads!

A typical performance goes from humorous foot-stompers to the deepest expression of the blues, with a whole lot of musical stops in between. These multi-talented musicians wield a wide variety of instruments, but primarily it's Jackie Merritt on harmonica, bones, and ukulele, Miles Spicer on guitar, and Resa Gibbs on lead vocals and washboard.

MSG's repertoire includes original songs, traditional blues, gospel/spirituals, and ragtime-influenced tunes, along with some surprising covers. They've performed with the Archie Edwards Blues Heritage Foundation Band as well as at numerous regional festivals including: Blues in the 'Burg, Smithsonian Folklife Festival, Artscape, and Bayou Boogaloo. They have also had the honor of performing on the Kennedy Center's Millennium Stage. Their 2017 release, The Flood, received a first-round Grammy nomination under the category of Best Traditional Blues Album.

MUSICAL QUOTE

“An artist, in giving a concert, should not demand an entrance fee but should ask the public to pay, just before leaving, as much as they like. From the sum he would be able to judge what the world thinks of him - and we would have fewer mediocre concerts.” ~ Kit Coleman

FOLK CLUB FORMAT

Most Tuesday nights the Folk Club is an open-mike format with a sign-up board. Each performer has 12 minutes, which includes setup time.

SHOWCASE PERFORMANCES

On the 2nd Tuesday of the month (usually), we feature a “Showcase” of a Folk Club member in a 25-minute performance. To be in the Showcase you must: 1) be a Folk Club member who has not done a showcase in the last 6 months; 2) fill out a lottery slip and place it in the “drawing bucket”; 3) Win the drawing on the night of the current month’s showcase; and 4) be prepared to be featured in the next newsletter!

NEWSLETTER PUBLICATION

Folk Club members are encouraged to submit performance calendars, classified ads, articles, reviews, artwork and other music-related items to newsletter editor Ben Hamblin at newsletter@restonherndonfolkclub.com. Information should be received 1 week prior to the end of the month for the next month’s newsletter. Items will be published on the basis of music-related interest, timeliness, and available space.
